The Upper is Cambridge's oldest surviving secondary school, founded by Dr Stephen Perse, a Fellow of Gonville & Caius College, 400 years ago. Today it is one of Britain's top co-educational day schools, with around 1,200 girls and boys aged 11-18. Our values shape everything we do and how we do it.

independent day school in Cambridge, England. Founded in 1615 by Stephen Perse, its motto is Qui facit per alium facit per se, taken to mean 'He who does things for others does them for himself'. The School began accepting girls at 11 and 13+ in September 2010 and was fully co-educational by September 2012. 'Perse' is a member of the Headmasters' and Headmistresses' Conference, an association of the leading UK independent schools. The organisation now compris
